

Located on a historic campus in the heart of Old Brooklyn, Cleveland Preparatory Academy fosters a learning environment where hands-on and project-based instruction is enriched with education technology to advance student learning and readiness.

The School promotes high standards for both academic achievement and behavior. A Positive Behavior Support Program helps students develop life skills and strong character. The Guiding Point program supports students' social and emotional wellbeing. After school tutoring, mentoring, and summer enrichment programs extend learning beyond the regular school day.
